Re: Fundraising by selected Council of State members in 2000 election

This report analyzes funds raised during the 2000 election cycle, ending Dec. 31, and disclosed on campaign reports. (Unreported donations to Phipps are not included.) It shows the large proportion of money that comes from industries that do business with the particular office. Contributions attributed to sectors include donations from the sector's PACs, lobbyists, executives and their immediate families.
